GIVE THANKS!

Have you celebrated Thanksgiving at school before? It's a lot of fun! We eat snacks and chat together. There are also lots of activities and games to play, including hand painting and hand turkeys. I hope you all have an awesome Thanksgiving Day!

PARENT'S DAY!

On Friday 7th November, it was parent's day! In Lingnan hall there was a book fair. There were many kinds of Chinese and English books for students to buy. In the English room there was an ECA display. All of the displays had art made by students in ECA classes.

A VISIT FROM PRINCIPAL CHEUNG

by Marie Liu

Principal Cheung from Tsung Tsin Christian Academy came to our school for a talk. He introduced his school to us and taught P.6 how to perform when they have school interviews. His school is devoted to building a caring and positive enterprising learning environment for their students. How thoughtful!

TENNIS STAR AT SCHOOL!

by Anson Fu

Recently, there was a tennis competition outside of school. Aiden Siu from P6 joined the competition and did really well. He tries hard and never gives up! In his free time he often practises tennis and he told me that he would like to be a tennis coach in the future. I hope he can follow his dream!

A PLAYGROUND MURAL

by Solomon Lau

A few days ago, students began drawing and painting a mural in the school playground. It is huge and made of many different drawings. Some teachers even need to climb ladders to draw at the top. It looks great and makes the playground more colourful!

TEACHER TALK - MS. LEUNG

by Amy Chan

Miss Leung is a Chinese teacher at our school. Her favourite subject is Chinese. Last year, she also taught visual art. In her free time she will take her daughter to the park to play. Her favourite colour is purple. Her favourite drink is milk tea and her favourite food is sushi. I like sushi too!

Joke of the month: What do you call a running turkey?

Answer: Fast Food
